

Critical Environment Supply

The Newsletter of Critical Environment Solutions Ltd

CES launch new Shieldskin glove range

Compliance, Comfort and Protection. CES are proud to announce the launch of a new range of gloves for critical environments from Shield Scientific.

With a choice of three cleanliness levels*, nitrile or latex, sterile or non sterile and various lengths Shield Scientific offer a glove suited to your application and wearer needs. The superior technical attributes and competitive pricing make this range one of the most popular and comprehensive available today.

*Cleanliness levels – washes in Deionised Water

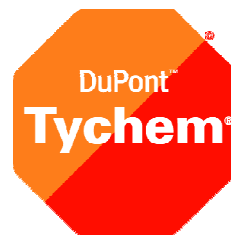

Particles per cm<sup>2</sup> < 0.5um

- DI - Single wash 3000
- DI+ - Triple wash 1200
- DI++ - Multiple wash 750

For further information or a copy of the Shieldskin brochure, please contact our sales team on ☎ 01634 719422 or download direct from the website www.cleanroomdirect.com.

Dupont Tychem® added to the range of disposable apparel

CES have added the Dupont Tychem® range of disposable garments to its product portfolio. These garments are the market leading solution for disposable chemical protection and garments are available in the following categories CAT III, type 3b, 4, 5 and 6. The Tychem® garments in addition to Tyvek® and Proshield® complete the suite of Dupont products supplied by CES.

For further information regarding Tychem® or any other Dupont disposable product please contact our sales team on ☎ 01634 719422.

CES website receives record hits

CleanroomDIRECT.com

The CES website has made significant progress following a period of site optimization which has seen the number of daily visits to the site doubled. Through a number of web marketing objectives including various promotional voucher campaigns the site has continued to register record level of sales during each of the last 6 trading months. Sales Director Steve Hufton reported that the web site and on-line store has become a powerful sales tool. To receive a 5% discount on all web orders placed before the end of March 2010 use MARDISC at the checkout.